

Kazuma Jinnouchi

Composer

Kazuma Jinnouchi is one of the most sought-after composers with over 20 years of experience in the field of scoring films and video games. Known for his creative and innovative approach to music composition, Jinnouchi has worked on numerous high-profile projects throughout his career, cementing his reputation as one of the industry's leading talents.

Jinnouchi's portfolio includes a diverse range of titles, spanning across multiple genres and platforms. He has worked on several notable video game titles, including Halo 5: Guardians, for which he was nominated for BAFTA Games Awards' Best Music category, critically acclaimed Metal Gear Solid 4: Guns of the Patriots, and most recently, Batman: Arkham Shadow. His contribution to the soundtracks of these games has been widely praised, with many fans and critics commending his ability to create immersive and emotionally resonant music that enhances the gaming experience.

Despite his success in the gaming industry, Jinnouchi's talents extend beyond the world of video games. He has also composed music for several films and series, including the Japanese animated fantasy adventure Suzume, which was nominated for The 51st Annie Awards' Best Music - Feature in 2023, and won Best Music at The 46th Japan Academy Film Prize, Disney+'s Star Wars Visions: the Ninth Jedi, Netflix's Leviathan, Ghost in the Shell SAC_2045, ULTRAMAN, and has collaborated with several renowned musicians and artists throughout his career.
